

Confessions of a Disc Jockey

One judges the popularity of a disk jockey by the size of the U-Haul trailer pulled to the next job. This is an autobiographical, unexpurgated, truthful, collection of events experienced over a span of forty-five years in commercial radio, starting in a smallish market and rising to a Vice Presidency and General Managership of a predominant FM Country Music Station in Tampa/St. Petersburg, Florida. WQYK FM 99.5 has billed somewhere near 260 million dollars since 1979. Sustained the popularity of more people than any other country music radio station in the southeastern USA for thirty years. The initial investment was one million two hundred thousand dollars. Contained in these vivid details are the inner workings of fast paced radio, the tricks of the trade, the one night stands, permanent friendships and enemies of a man who drives himself hard, guides his support players with a careful administration of motivation and understanding. The competitors... well, thats another kettle of fish. Rods style is to attack. Though some profanity is quoted in conversations, this book doesnt sensationalize the modern proclivity of using four letter words for shock value, nor are sex scenes vividly portrayed. We leave those details to your imagination. How does one tastefully describe fellatio in a pickup truck bed filled with sawdust and not be crude? Confessions of a Disc Jockey may be viewed by some as a radio basic training handbook. The episodes certainly give the reader a clear understanding of how and what you hear on a car radio really hides, if the station to which youve tuned is programmed with living personalities operating extemporaneously. Satellite programming excluded. Doesnt matter the size of the market. Backstage is usually chaos. Inside the air studio, a radio station broadcasting a live human manipulated format can be compared to the duck swimming placidly on the surface of a lake. Underwater the duck is paddling like hell! Words and modern day mindless speech crutches omitted from this autobiographic are: You know - I mean - as well as - like you know - basically - definitely - using further for farther - come for go - wow as an idiotic statement of surprise - multiple for more than two or several - cop speak - uh actually - okay? - I give ya that - someone named Dude - as well - welcome back - honestly I - decade instead of ten year increments - I gotta be honest with you - absolutely - fantastic - and dont forget. rb
