

White Ball - Black Ball: A Brief History of Negro League Baseball 1800-1950

This book is a brief discussion of the history of black involvement in baseball from the time the sport was first played in the United States through the end of the Negro League Era. The following discussion puts black involvement in baseball in a framework that looks at the historical events in America; generally examines some of the black response to these events; and plots the development of black professional baseball as it reflects the social, political, and economic issues of the time.
