

Escape from Below

Tommy the mouse gathers his friends together to test out his new raft. However, disaster strikes...and the raft is swept down a nearby drain and they find themselves at the mercy of the raging currents in the sewerage system. The raft is carried deeper through a confusing maze of passageways and grottos in which the mice are in constant peril, until eventually the craft enters an old coal mine, where Abner, a bullfrog, finds them and promises to lead them to safety.... will the companions end their days in the sewer, or finally escape from below.
